

A Better Way To Build

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ZARA JOHNSON TO COMPETE IN MRS. ILLINOIS/AMERICA PAGEANT FRIDAY, FEB. 11, AT BOLINGBROOK PERFORMING ARTS AUDITORIUM

Mrs. Johnson, a Plainfield, Ill. resident, is sponsored by Cicero's Development Corporation and Business Machine Agents.

Plainfield, Ill., Feb. 11, 2011 – Cicero's Development Corporation, a premier commercial renovation company, today announced that Zara Johnson, who has served as Cicero's office manager for more than 20 years, will compete to be named Mrs. Illinois 2011 at the Mrs. Illinois/America Pageant Friday, tonight Feb. 11, at the Bolingbrook Performing Arts Auditorium.

Mrs. Johnson will be cheered by family, friends and colleagues as she competes in the swimsuit, evening gown and personal interview segments of the competition. The pageant will feature a distinguished panel of judges comprised of entertainment, community and business leaders.

"Pageants have always been an important part of my life as I had three sisters participate in the past and this will be my first," Mrs. Johnson said. "I am awfully grateful to receive the support from Cicero's Development Corporation, Business Machine Agents, and my growing fan base of family, friends and community members."

Sam Cicero, Sr., who has managed Mrs. Johnson for more than 20 years, tips his hat to his loyal employee and credits her hard work, passion, poise and organization as a significant factor in the success of Cicero's over the past 40 years in business.

"Zara has been a wonderful asset to Cicero's Development Corporation and we are awfully proud of her as she participates in the Mrs. Illinois/America Pageant," Cicero, Sr. said. "All of us, including our extended families and friends of the company, are rooting all the way for Zara!"

Should she win, she will be awarded over $15,000 in Prizes including a trip to the National Pageant. There she will compete for the title of Mrs. America.
